PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We have a bit of a delay with this issue of the Scuttlebutt and because this winter with broken water pipes, some snow and COLD Weather.

Well, I trust that everyone had an enjoyable Holiday Season and had a GRAND WELCOME into 2026.

This year, I had more returns of Singles Membership cards. Most of them were mailed around December 15th and the returns took about a month to reach me. Unfortunately, Helen Kurthy from Lake Mary, Florida card was sent back with the notation that this person is deceased. On the return from Judy Rinehimer from Brentwood, CA there was no current information on file with FRVA. Therefore, I sent her an email. To my surprise, she returned an email telling me she sold everything and bought a suite on the Villa Vie Odyssey residential cruise ship. She wrote from the South Pacific en route to Australia Anchor. So a different way to get the news out about two members.

We have a new member, Sandy Fuller from the Villages Florida. Sandy, David, and I performed with the Frustrated Maestros for many enjoyable years. She sold the bus and was downsized to travel and enjoy the country.

We have two FRVA Rallies that will occur during this issue, the SEA Rally going on about now at Lakeland Florida. I think we have only one attending, Bill Brailsford who likes to ride his bike around the area and I believe he will also attend the Perry Rally in March as well as our Eastern Area Mary Lou Dudziak Phone number 804-212-7638 and Sandy Fuller.

By the time you receive this issue, the Super bowl will be history and the 2026 Olympics will be in full swing. The 2026 Season for NASCAR will begin on Feb 15 with the Daytona 500. I'm looking forward to that.

Safe travel,
John McPherson, President
